Rosanna Jackson

Rosanna Jackson is the Oral Health Program Manager for the California Department of Public Health.

She has worked for the Oral Health program since 2006, and has been responsible for providing programmatic leadership for the California Children’s Dental Disease Prevention Program, Community Water Fluoridation, oral health workforce and general oral health issues.

She is a member of the California Head Start Collaboration Advisory.

She has over thirty years’ experience working in public health both at the state and local levels.

Ms. Jackson is a co-author of the “Status of Oral Health in California: Oral Disease Burden and Prevention 2017”.

Ms. Jackson is passionate about reaching the goal for all Californians to achieve their highest level of health and well-being no matter their zip code.