23rd International Symposium in Oral and Maxillofacial Surgery

Confronting the Challenges in Oral Surgery Today

EDUCATIONAL OBJECTIVES:

1. Evaluate patients who need dental implants in compromised sites

2. Define the challenges in providing implant restorations for the completely edentulous patient.

3. Describe the ENT surgeon’s perspective on the maxillary sinus and how dental treatment may affect its physiology.

4. List ways to reduce office-based anesthesia morbidity.

5. Describe contemporary management of in-office oral pathology.

6. Define the principles behind surgical uprighting of second molars.

7. Describe current controversial issues in medicolegal aspects of oral and maxillofacial surgery.

8. List the principles of the use of dermofillers and botulinum toxin in the perioral regions.